FOR THE REPOSE OF HIS SOUL.

Emperor Nicholas and Dowager Stood By Widow and Children at The Funeral.

St. Petersburg, July 31.-M. Von Piehve, the minister of the interior, who was assassinated Thursday morning last, was buried today, and in every city and hamlet of this vast empire church bells were tolled and masses and prayers said for the repose of the soul of the murdered minister. The services here, which were according to the rites of the orthodox church, were of an impressive and imposing character. At 11 o'clock this morning high mass was said in the stately chapel adjoining the ministery of the interi-Emperor Nicholas and the dowager cushions, before a mass of wreaths cushions, before a mass of wreaths tanked to the ceiling, were ranged the decrations which had been won by the statesman during his notable career. To the left were the metropolitan of St. Petersburg and the officiating bishops and priests, in their gold embiazoned vestments. A screen of flowers conceiled the famous imperial choir. Among those present were other members of the imperial family, the foreign representatives, including foreign representatives, including Spencer Eddy, charge d'affaires of the American embassy: ministers of the empire, generals, admirals, nobles, governors of distant provinces, like those of Astrakan and Irkutsk, in fact all of Astrakan and Irkutsk, in fact all high officialdom, not even omitting Ghenghis Khan, a lineal descendant of the Napoleon of Asia, who is now a major-general in the Russian service.

The entire assemblage was in full uniform and on the arm of each one present was a badge of mourning. All held lighted tapers throughout the service and the air was heavy with the perfume of flowers and incense from the

The emperor was visibly moved, and upon the conclusion of the mass he followed the casket, which was taken upon the shoulders of the ministers and borne down the broad marble staircase to the street. There the funeral procession was formed and the body was placed in a great white open hearse, drawn by six coal black horses, which were blanketed from their ears to their tails in sombre trappings.

A black garbed groom stood at each bridle, and in advance went 16 similarly elad lantern bearers. Behind the hearse walked the members of the minister's family, and then came a long and distinguished body of mourners, it being the Russian custom to follow the dead to the grave on foot. The corners to the grave on foot meelf walked a short distance, but the Novodevicky monastery, where a burial took place, was over five les away, and also because of the addition of the empress, his majesty

St. Louis, July 31.—The Roosevelt party of boys spent the greater part of the day at the First Presbyterian church and in writing letters. The boys expressed themselves as having had one of the best times of their lives.

so many women suffer make life a daily purgatory. If men suffered with head ache as women do, business would be almost at a stanstill. Does not the fact that men do not suffer from these severe headaches suggest that there must be a womanly cause for them?

When the womanly organism is diseased, headache, backache, nervousness and sleeplessness are consequences which are sure to follow.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures headaches and other aches and pains by curing their cause. It establishes regu-larity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It soothes pain and builds up the nerves. It transforms weak, sickly, nervous invalids into happy, healthy women. Thousands have testified to its marvelous merits.

"I took two bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and two of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and am feeling well." writes Mrs. Dan McKenzie, of Lorway Mines, Cape Breton Co., Nova Scotia. "I had uterine trouble, pain in the side and headache. After taking your medicines I got well. You may publish this or use it in any way you think best, as I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

"Favorite Prescription" has the testi-mony of thousands of women to its complete cure of womanly diseases. Do not accept an unknown and unproved substitute in its place. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense

His Position is Critical and He Must Either Fight or Retire Northward.

MATTERS COMING TO A HEAD.

Whether for a Battle or a Withdrawal Cannot at This Time be Determined.

St. Petersburg. Aug. 1 .- Although public attention has been distracted from the events of the war during the past week, first, because of the fear of international complications, and second, because of the assassination of Minister of the Interior von Plehve, the situation at the front is regarded as

The enveloping movement of the three Japanese armies of Gens. Kuroki, Nodzu and Oku around Gen. Kuropatkin's position appears to be almost complete, and the extended line of the Japanese seems to be the only drawback to concerted action.

It is realized here that the Russian general must now either fight or withdraw the whole army northward. He is being closely pressed at Haicheng. At that place Gen. Kuroki's northern column makes it extremely dangerous to remain there, because, while holding the position to give battle against the

the position to give battle against the Japanese, whose advance is necessarily always slow and careful, they might push through and cut his railway communications to Liao Yang.

While nothing is definitely known, there are some unofficial indications that matters are maturing rapidly either for a battle or for a retreat. For instance, the refusal to accept further press telegrams at Haicheng is shown by the fact that one of the corresponby the fact that one of the correspondents of the Associated Press had to ride through to Mukden to file an account of the Ta Tche Kiao fight. A few days are ex-pected to determine which course Ken. Kuropatkin has elected to pursue.

There is no inclination here to doubt that there may have been pretty severe fighting at the outer positions of Port Arthur, possibly accompanied by a bombardment from the sea, but it is not believed that the not believed that the Japanese are yet ready to storm the fortress.

Rear-Admiral Withoft, in command of the naval forces of Port Arthur, is relied upon to put to sea if the condition of the fortress becomes desperate. While no definite information is obtainable, the report that the fortress is short of ammunition is considered by the public as the most disquieting feature of the situation.

SAKHAROFF'S FRONT UN-

St. Petersburg, July 31.—Lieut.-Gen. Sakharoff, in a dispatch to the general staff dated July 30, reports that "there has been no change in the front of the Manchurian army up to midday today. The Japanese are concentrating strongly on our southern front."
Gen. Sakharoff then refers to Gen. Oku's account of the battle of Ta Tche Kiao, and declares that the Russian Kiao, and declares that the Russian forces were not as large as Gen. London, Aug. 1.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Newchwang, in a dispatch dated July 31, says that there has been heavy fighting for two days in the marshes south of Haicheng during the gradual retreat from Ta Tche Kiao of 5,000 Russians, forming the rear guard, and that the peril of this force increases daily.

SHIPWRECKED. Crew of Whaling Bark President Arrives at New Bedford.

New Bedford, Mass., Aug. 1 .- On board the Portuguese steamer Peninsular, which has arrived from Lisbon, were Capt, Joseph Enos and the three mates of the whaling bark President, which was wrecked on the west coast of Africa on May 8.

The President struck about midnight somewhere in the vicinity of Port Alexandria, according to the story told by Second Mate Barney.

After one boat had been smashed and another had reached shore, according to Mate Barney's tale, there were 10 men left on the sinking President without any boat to leave in. These 10 finally embarked on a raft on which they floated about for six hours before those who had previously reached shore were able to rescue them. A cask of bread came ashore and a cask of canned goods, so there was plenty of food, but the party was entirely without water.

They were 31 miles from Port Alexandria and walked along the beach to that place, which they reached after three days of interse suffering. Being without shoes their feet were cut by the shells on the beach and were blis-tered by the heat of the sand. One man was bitten by a poisonous eel and died as the result of the wound. The captain's wife was one of the party.

Jackson H. Ralston Signs Final Award as Umpire of Italian. Venezuelan Commission.

AWARDS ACCRECATE $600,000

Germany Has Delivered an Ultimatum Demanding Immediate Payment.

Washington, July 31.-Jackson M. Ralston of this city has just signed his final award as umpire of the Italian-Venezuelan commission, and this completes the labors of all the recent Venezuelan mixed commissions. About 360 claims, aggregating $6,000,000, were filed with the Italian commission, there being many more Italian claimants than any other nationality, and the aggregate awards were about $600,000. Many questions of doubtful citizenship came before the commission, and the umpire held, in all cases of differ-ence between Venezuelan and Italian laws, that the law of domicil claimant after the time of birth should control.

The largest claim presented was that of the Cervaia heirs for over $3,000,000. The original claimant was born in Sicily, but pased a large part of his life in Venezueia, going abroad at different periods in various capacities for that country. The umpire held that, according to the law of his native land, he had forfeited his original citizenship by his diplomatic employment, and his heirs therefore could not be heard before the Italian commission.

Another case of importance was that of the Martini company, which held a

Another case of importance was that of the Martini company, which held a concession for coal mines and the railroad from Guanta to Barcelona. The company claimed $1,800,000 because of interference with its business by the paper blockade and closure of the port of Guanto, etc.

The umpire held that under the terms of the concession the port should have remained open and that the paper blockade, or blockade by proclamation only, was illegal and that Venezuela was liable for damages directly resultant therefrom, granting the company

A claim of $600,000 was presented by the Poggiolis, who had been merchants in the state of Los Andes. The Poggi-olis claimed that they had been assault-ed; that their assailants, by connivance of the authorities, escaped punishment and that their extensive properties had been destroyed through the joint action of the authorities and private individuals none of the parties engaged in such destruction being punished and personal protection being practically re-The umpire held that under the circumstances of the case Venezuela was legally liable for the wrongdoing of her officials, and granted an award of $107,-Several cases of expulsion came before the commission. The umpire recognized the governmental right of expulsion, but found in particular instances that it had exercised it in disregard of the law, and granted damages. For the unlawfui killing of two Ttelians by on the presence and with Italians by or in the presence, and with the sanction of, government officials, awards of $8,000 and $10,000 were given.

The question most debated before the of Venezuela for the acts of unsuccessful revolutionists. The umpire, follow ing many precedents, held in a number of cases that such responsibility did not exist. In cases where the concession had provided that all questions of interpretation and execution should be referred to the Venezuelan courts for settlement and never should be made a subject of international claim, the um pire held that an individual claimant could not contract away the right of his government diplomatically to present a and that the commission had jurisdiction.

In several cases Venezuela had col-lected a second time taxes once paid to a de facto revolutionary government, but by the umpire's opinions such sec-ond payment was held illegal and refund was ordered. Mr. Ralston held barred by laches as in conformity with the principles underlying prescription, claims for damages which had not been presented to Venezuela for 30 years after the al-leged occurrences. Interest at the rate of 3 per cent per annum (the legal rate in Venezuela in the absence of contract) was allowed on claims from the date of presenta-tion to the Venezuelan government or the commission, Jan. 1, 1991. GERMANY DEMANDS PAYMENT.

Willemstadt, Island of Curacoa, July 31.—It is reported that Herr Pelliram, the German minister at Caracas, has delivered an ultimatum demanding the immediate payment by the Venezuelan government of the interest on the amount of the award to be paid to Geramount of the award to be be many as stipulated in the potocol signed by Herbert W. Bowen, representing Venezuela in February, 1903, and the second is not complied with. If this demand is not complied with, the report says, the minister will leave Caracas Aug. 4.

SURPRISED AT VENEZUELA'S ACTION.

Washington, July 31.—Not a little surprise is evidenced here over the news from Willemstadt as the general impression has been that President Castro was meeting the demands of the protocols signed by Mr. Bowen. Germany, Italy and Great Britain, according to the decision of The Hague tribunal, were to have preferential treat-ment in the payment of their claims ment in the payment of their claims against Venezuela, after which the non-blockading powers were to be paid.

All the payments were to be made out of 30 per cent of the customs receipts of the ports of La Guayra and Porto Cabello, which were to be set aside for that purpose. There has been a feeling of dissatisfaction among some of the members of the diplomatic ccrps at Caracas over various acts of President Castro, and some reports which have reached here, have intimated that a full 30 per cent of the receipts at the two ports named were ceipts at the two ports named were not being set aside for the payment of the claims as provided for in the protocol. This may have a bearing on the action which is said to have been taken by the German minister At the same time provision also was made that if Venezuela failed to keep the terms of the protocol the Belgia government was to take charge of th customs at the ports named and admin-lster them until the claims of the pow-ers were settled along the lines agreed on. This should remove the necessity for any arbitrary action by any of the powers signatory to the protocol.
